PROFILE

*I am a rising senior at UNC-Chapel Hill studying Media and Journalism, with a focus on photo/video storytelling. I love meeting new people, putting myself in their shoes and documenting what their life is like, often for longer periods of time. I have begun my internship at The News&Observer, where I create visual content based around Raleigh, N.C., and learn new skills to prepare me for a long-term career in visual storytelling. ## EXPERIENCE

Visuals Intern

Communications Intern

The NCBG is a conservation garden dedicated to preserving and educating the public about native plants. I take photos, write articles, assemble flyers and complete office tasks as needed.
